AMIGA CD32™

The Time: The 1950's – The Location: London – Your Role: Matt Stuvysunt

Matt is a very poor but ambitious thief, who finds the stresses of life are too much. To improve his standard of living, he decides to commit the ultimate robbery, to steal the Crown Jewels...

It is up to you to plot and plan the robbery, to interact with other characters and to use them for your advantage to achieve the most daring robbery of all time... Decieve the Police so that they help you unwittingly... Fall in love with Gangster Moles... But remember to keep you head as the pressure builds up...

Features include:

- Over 20 buildings have been accurately reproduced which duplicate the actual environment where the Jewels are kept.
- Over 40 period scenes from second hand car dealers to bars etc., to give a realistic feel to the game.
- Interact with over 60 characters, each of whom have different personalities – some of which have the ideal temperament to be in your gang!
- Over 20 types of 1950's automobiles have been reproduced – these can be bought and then souped up and re-sprayed.
- 1950's style music and sound effects!
- 90 page highly detailed manual.
- Save as you play facility or highly sophisticated password-system in CD-32 version.

A game by ...and avoid panic by.
